Women's Second Step Personal Safety Course - Handgun

Building on the Women's Introductory Personal Safety Class, this course is ideal for those who wish to continue their firearm training and use. If, as part of your personal protection education, you are shopping for a handgun and wish to identify suitable calibers, barrel lengths and action types, this class will meet that need. Participants can try both revolvers and semiautomatics, in a wide variety of calibers, from .22 to the massive .44 Magnum. ALL HANDGUNS ARE PROVIDED!

A 3 hour course specifically designed for women of all ages interested in family or personal protection, Mothers and Daughters are encouraged to attend together,

Done in a setting of your peers, so as not be embarrassing, with everyone at or near the same level of experience, utilizing the basic shooting fundamentals previously taught. Each student will shoot all of the handguns to experience the "fit" and "feel", and then select the one you will use for the balance of the class.

You will spend time developing your shooting skills while shooting a challenging course of fire from multiple positions, reloading and racing against the clock.

COST: $80.<sup>00</sup> Per person

All ammunition, firearms, hearing, eye protection and targets provided as part of the class. Students should wear closed toe shoes and clothing that will prevent ejected cartridges from going down their necks or backs.

Classes usually run three (3) hours, size is limited and typically held in the mornings during the week. Call to reserve a place in the next class, a nonrefundable $25 deposit is required.
